

OSLER

Presenting a rare opportunity to view a private contemporary Canadian Art Collection

Join us April 14, 2010 at 6:30 pm on the 63rd floor of First Canadian Place for a tour of the

Osler Contemporary Art Collection

Portal by Martin Golland

Runner Up Winner of the Royal Bank of Canada's 2009 Emerging Artist Award.

Created in the early 1980s, the Osler Contemporary Art Collection has been continually developed to showcase the most talented young and mid-career artists of their times. Included in this collection are: Harold Klunder, John Brown, Micah Lexies, Chris Cran, Suzy Lake, Evan Penny, Robert Houle as well as several other prominent Canadian Artists.

The Osler Contemporary Art Collection has been exhibited recently at the McMichael Gallery as it demonstrates the importance of corporate collections in developing and supporting Canadian and Contemporary art. The Osler Art Collection was recently named Best Art Collection in a Canadian Law firm by Precedents magazine.

Join us for wine and cheese, followed by a guided tour from former partner and now art consultant Steve Smart who was instrumental in the acquisition of this collection.

Art Tour Cost: $100 (Tax Receipts will be issued)

To RSVP and purchase your ticket Click Here

If you cannot attend but would like to make a donation to The Concerned Kids Click Here

All proceeds from this event will benefit The Concerned Kids. Since 1989, The Concerned Kids has been dedicated to social education through the medium of interactive puppetry. We have reached 300,000 students to date in communities in and around Toronto. Currently our Bullies & School Safety and Multiculturalism: Celebrating Diversity programs are in great demand. To learn more about the Concerned Kids please visit our website at www.theconcernedkids.com.